ABOUT APG WORKFORCE

Proudly Australian owned since 1998, APG Workforce is your trusted partner for your recruitment & labour hire needs. From an extensive network of industry professionals, APG Workforce provides both skilled and unskilled workers to a wide range of industries including food & beverage manufacturing, transport & logistics, industrial manufacturing, agriculture, horticulture, building & construction and clerical services. We deliver a fast, reliable and engaged service using our accredited management processes to reduce risk and ensure customer satisfaction.

APG Workforce is already the preferred recruitment & labour hire partner for many trusted household brands across essential industry sectors throughout Australia. We constantly strive to deliver the right people with the right attitude and the right skills, at the right time by continually training our talented consultants to understand the specific needs of our customers and have a deep understanding of the type of environment where they will be placing our people.

Our promise to you is that we will provide an engaged workforce supporting cultural diversity and a stronger partner on safety in the workplace. Our account management is detailed, personable and safety/culture driven. We believe in long-term and successful relationships, to embrace change and innovation in support of continuous improvement. Our absolute goal is to exceed your expectations and make your life easier by getting the job done!
