Instant Tea Concentrate

Fine granulated extract.

Cafemaster fine granulated Tea Concentrate has been especially formulated for Catering and Hospitality. Fast, efficient, economical and eliminating the mess associated with leaf tea & tea bags. The tea originates from some of the finest growing regions of the world, where it undergoes a special production process so as to capture all the nutritional values and flavour of pure leaf tea. Ideal for bulk catering, functions, nursing and hospitals, airlines, armed services, cruise ships, institutions and outside events, not to mention automatic beverage machines. One pack (100g) will prepare around 20 litres of pure black tea. Can be added into a hot water urn for instant tea self-serve without the added cost of brewing equipment and waste associated with same. With a long best-before, it saves space and storage ready to use anywhere anytime.
