Belgian Chocolate

I'm as fine as Belgian dark chocolate for a flavour you can savour. Try and stop at just one of me. I double dare you.

Coconut Ginger

Start smackin' your lips together cos I'm a perfect blend of creamy rich coconut with hints of ginger. One tease and I'll have you weak at the knees.

Passionfruit Tart

Let me smother you with gentle kisses of creamy tartness. Mouth-watering and ripe for the licking, I'll have you puckering up in no time.

Salted Caramel

Deep sugar caramelisation and a light touch of sea salt leaves a hint of darker notes. One lick of me and I'll have you singing my praises.

Mango Swirl

Some call me the taste of Summer, but you can enjoy me all year round. Lick, suck, or bite me for a one way trip to the tropics.

Cookie Crumble

Fill up on my fresh-baked cookie chunks and sprinkles of chocolate shavings. Fancy and flavoursome is how this cookie crumbles.

Strawberry Lemonade

An old school classic, I'm full of fresh-frozen strawberries and ice cool lemon juice. I've been told I'm a hit with the taste buds. Try me to find out.

Watermelon Lime

Take a load off and cool your melon for a tick. Chill out with me and my traces of zesty lime while I put a pep back in your step.
