

Saleem Iqbal
President & CEO
HAB Bank

Saleem Iqbal is currently the President/CEO and Director of HAB Bank. Since 2000, he has led the Bank with extraordinary transformation with strategy designed to re-engineer processes and fuel sustained growth with diverse revenue streams.

Starting 2011, he served two three-year terms in the Federal Reserve Bank of New York's Advisory Council. The Advisory Council consists of 12 CEOs selected from over 1,200 Banks, Thrifts & Credit Unions in New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Puerto Rico and US Virgin Island. In 2013, he was among a select group of business leaders invited to the White House for the Export Finance Roundtable. He currently a member of Community Bankers Council at American Bankers Association representing New York State and also serves on its Administrative Committee. In 2020 CSBS (Conference of State Bank Supervisors) appointed him on their Bank Advisory Board.

Saleem serves on the boards of Middlesex County Community College, New Jersey, and Cerritos Community College. Currently, he is serving in American Bankers Association's Community Bankers Council's Administrative Committee. He represents entire New York State's community banks in the Council. He holds a Master's Degree in Administrative Sciences from Quaid-e-Azam University, Islamabad and completed his Advance Management Program from Columbia Business School in New York.

ABOUT HAB BANK

HAB BANK (the Bank), incorporated in 1983 as a New York State Chartered Bank, is a member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC). The Bank is headquartered in New York City. With multi-state branches in New York, New Jersey and California, the Bank's total assets stands at $1.9 Billion making it the largest South-Asian domestic Bank in the U.S.

Through the years, the Bank has evolved in response to needs of its customers and maintains a close relationship with the community it serves. The Bank's core products are Commercial Real Estate Mortgages, International Trade Services, US Small Business Loans and a well-designed commercial banking products and services for small to medium sized businesses and a wide range of consumer products and services including personal checking, savings, CDs, and full-service online and mobile delivery channels.