Welcome...

International Women Leading Education Across Continents extends a warm invitation to academic scholars, researchers, postgraduate students and educational practitioners for the bi-annual conference located in New Zealand, Monday 31 August –Thursday 3 September 2015.

This conference brings together scholars and educational practitioners to explore and celebrate the work of women leaders worldwide. With a focus on the importance of shifting conversations about women's leadership forward and creating meaningful and deliberate actions, this research conference seeks to celebrate women leaders, share research findings, generate global discussions and re-imagine leadership across a range of international contexts underpinned by notions of joy, passion and purpose.

The conference will take place in the city of Hamilton at the University of Waikato. Join us and experience the unique cultural heritage of New Zealand, the warm hospitality and stimulating research presentations and discussions during the 2015 WLENZ Conference.
