All participants who are enrolled in any Arizona State Fire School Live Fire Training will follow NFPA's standards in regard to flame-resistant t-shirts and shorts used during Live Fire Drills. Additionally, an example of this is synthetic or spolt-type clothing, in particularly, Under Armor clothing which could prove to be lethal will not to be allowed and worn during Live Fire Training. Preferably, base layer clothing such as 100% Cotton Wear is the choice of apparel.

NFPA 1975: Standard on Station/Work Uniforms for Emergency Services. This standard provides safeguards for emergency services personnel while on the job by establishing requirements for flame-resistant station uniform clothing which will not cause or exacerbate burn injuries.
