

MasterCard is pleased to announce a “Call for Presenters” for the 2015 Global Risk Management Conference Series

Each year the MasterCard Academy of Risk Management hosts several conferences around the world to convey technology information to fraud and security professionals. These conferences spotlight the innovative use of technology in fraud and risk prevention and introduce technologies and solutions enhancing our industry’s ability to detect, prevent and minimize the impact of fraud.

Call for Presenters

Would you like to be a part of the MasterCard Global Risk Management Conference Series? Presentations should relate to the latest trends and technologies in fraud prevention and can include topics such as:

- Innovation in the Payment Industry
- Future of Payment Card Security
- The Progressing Threat Landscape
- EMV Rollout
- Mobile Technology and the Advancements in Digital Payment
- Authentication: 3DS 2.0 & the Death of Passwords
- Products and Solutions to Address Security Challenges
- The Importance of Public Private Partnerships

Our conferences utilize several different tracks featuring the latest techniques in fraud management, industry hot topics and client experiences. We invite you to propose any topic you feel worthy of presenting or learning about at this event.
