

THE ZONE

HAYDN Meyer has left Wright Property after 18 months and will work with Place Real Estate Agents in Manly.

A Manly local, the former Raine & Horne Commercial Southside industrial agent said it was a lifestyle decision to work closer to home.

SAVILLS Queensland has appointed Cameron Dickson to its Valuation & Consultancy team. Cameron joins Savills from Herron Todd White Valuers where he fostered a strong banking client base.

THE Meriton Group has won gongs for its two Brisbane CBD residential towers in separate awards.

It's 81-storey 'Infinity' tower has taken out the International Property Award for 'Best Residential High-Rise Development' (Australia).

And its 74-storey Soleil apartments won the Gough Recruitment Award for Best Residential Development in the Property Council/Rider Levett Bucknall Innovation & Excellence Awards.

Also in the Property Council awards Hamilton Harbour, developed by Leighton Properties, was presented with the GHD Woodhead Award for Best Mixed Use Development.

RAY White Lifestyle have moved their coastal office to Capital Place at Birtinya after nearly five years on the Nicklin Way in a move that director Ben Wilson says will position his company for the significant growth that will take place in the area over the next few years.

The business kicked off in 2009 when Ben and Sam Archer opened the doors on Nicklin Way and despite the GFC the pair ensured the business not only survived but thrived.

NEW PLACE: Hadyn Meyer.