

Reflections on the creation and evolution of third space partnerships during

P. Burns (University of Wollongong), C. A. Green (UOW), M. J. Eady (UOW), P. Harris (UOW), J. R. Baker (University of NSW), J. Primmer (Wollongong City Council), C. Barkley (Coledale Public School), V. Traynor (UOW)

Project DARE (Dementia, Art,
Research and Education):
Primary school students learn about dementia through Art

*Scan the QR Code for more details about
Project DARE*

The formation of third space partnerships has benefits for both the individuals and organisations involved in such projects.

Third space partnerships be used to bridge the theory-practice gap that often exists between academia and the real-world.