

General Manager of GAINDE 2000 since 2002, Ibrahim Nour Eddine DIAGNE boasts 16 years of experience in trade facilitation with the use of Information Technologies. After few years in Trade Point Senegal, e-business department, he has conducted, as part of the missions assigned to GAINDE 2000 by Senegalese customs, the establishment of the electronic Single Window for trade of Senegal, which is evolving towards a paperless trade platform.

Renowned expert within international trade facilitation bodies, Ibrahim Nour Eddine DIAGNE has since 2006 been occupying the mandate of Rapporteur for Africa of the UN Center for Trade Facilitation (UN/CEFACT).

Ibrahim Nour Eddine DIAGNE is a founding member and the Chairman of the African Alliance for e-Commerce (AAEC) grouping Single Window operators in Africa. Ten African countries are members of this Pan-African alliance.

Ibrahim Nour Eddine DIAGNE holds a B.Sc from HEC Montreal, a M.Sc. from HEC Paris and an Executive MBA issued by UQAM Montreal.