

eHealth

Better Healthcare for Europe

Information & communication technology (ICT) for health and wellbeing can be our most powerful ally for cost efficient and high quality care in Europe.

European healthcare systems are facing increased demand and costs, in times of shrinking budgets. If we increase the use of ICT, we can achieve a triple win: a better quality of life for European citizens, innovation and growth for a competitive EU industry and more sustainable care systems for society.

eHealth & the EU - Useful links:

- Subscribe to the European Commission newsletter on eHealth: bit.ly/eHealthinFocus
- Website: ec.europa.eu/digital-agenda/ehealth
- EU policy: the eHealth Action Plan 2012-2020: europa.eu/!KD73MY
- All EU-funded eHealth research & innovation projects: bit.ly/eHealthprojects
- EC-funded studies on eHealth: europa.eu/!mN34xk
- EU interoperability activities: europa.eu/!Gh64XY
- EU funding opportunities Horizon 2020: ec.europa.eu/programmes/horizon2020

More information on H2020 funding opportunities: See backside

*ICT for Health & Wellbeing, European Commission, DG CONNECT,
is part of the Digital Agenda for Europe.
Twitter: @EU_eHealth*