

CHATSWOOD

Concourse wins award

WILLOUGHBY Council has won an award for The Concourse at the Property Council of Australia innovation and excellence awards.

The council won the Philip Chun Award for government leadership for the Chatswood cultural centre.

The Concourse is one of the largest and most successful local government projects delivered in Australia over the past decade, Property Council of Australia chief executive Peter Verwer said.