

Rev. Diane Rew

Diane has enjoyed (truly) serving local churches in North East WI for 35 years. She grew up in a wonderful little United Methodist church in Kenyon, MN. After college she worked as Program Director at the Emma Norton Residence in St Paul, MN (A mission Project of UMW Women's Division and MN Conference UMC). She graduated with an MDiv from Boston University, moved to Wisconsin and has served churches ever since. She is retiring from Green Bay: St Paul's UMC where she has served for 18 years. Along the way, she served on District and Conference Boards of Ordained Ministry, Council on Finance and Administration and likely a number of other committees that have slipped her mind. The short list of her hobbies include: hiking, biking, art museums, choral music, good fiction, and good friends. She has two adult children: Anna (MN) and Micah (CO). She lives in De Pere surrounded by fantastic neighbors and an entertaining flock of wild turkeys.
