

INAUGURAL

Global Brain Health and Performance Summit

Abstract Submission Deadline: April 25, 2016

The Global Brain Health and Performance Summit Scientific Program Committee invites you to submit abstracts for papers to be presented at the upcoming conference at The Ohio State University in Columbus, OH.

General Information

The 2016 Inaugural Global Brain Health and Performance Summit Scientific Program Committee has reserved time on the program for scientific poster sessions. Poster sessions will take place on Thursday (May 12) during the poster reception and posters will be able for viewing throughout the entirety of the conference. You are welcome and encouraged to bring handouts.

Brain Health and Performance topics can include:

- Virtual reality
- Neurogaming
- Neuromodulation
- Military applications
- Athletics applications
- Biomarkers of performance and recovery
- Advanced technology for performance enhancement
- Sensing technology
- Minimizing effects of aging on cognition
- Quantifying brain networks and performance
- Performance Assessment
- Cognitive Readiness
- Fatigue
- Physical Training for Performance Improvement

Abstracts previously presented at other national or international meetings will be accepted. Accepted abstracts will be printed in the syllabus. Notification of acceptance will be no later than May 1, 2016.

The Scientific Program Committee recognizes that submissions of high quality, accepted for presentation at this meeting, should be acknowledged. The 2016 Inaugural Global Brain Health and Performance Summit educational committee will retain the copyright of published abstracts.

Submission Information

Please use the recommended abstract format: Introduction/Statement of the Problem, Materials and Methods, Results, and Conclusions. The text of your abstract may be up to 300 words. All correspondence will be sent to the presenting author.

Submission Information

- Poster presentations are limited to one (1) primary presenter.
- In 300 words or less, provide an accurate, succinct, and informative representation of the content that will be presented in the paper. The abstract communicates the essence of the presentation to the intended audience.
- Do not use abbreviations. Type in sentence case. Do not use all caps.
- Do not use the ampersand character (&) unless it is part of the company name.
- Proofread for typographical, grammar, and syntax errors.

Abstracts must be submitted in a Word document (with a .doc extension) and include the following information:

- Indication of presentation as paper
- Title of presentation
- Name and institution of presenter(s)
- Abstract text

INAUGURAL

Global Brain Health and Performance Summit

All abstracts should be submitted electronically, as Word documents (with a .doc extension), via e-mail to brainhealthinfo@cbc-us.com. All presenting authors must also complete the Disclosure Form and submit it together with the abstract.
If you have any questions, please contact brainhealthinfo@cbc-us.com.

Selection Criteria: Submissions will be reviewed and rated by members of the Scientific Program Committee who have expertise in the clinical area to which the submission belongs. Each submission will be reviewed for its scientific or clinical importance, ethical practice, and study design.

Notification of Acceptance or Rejection of Submissions

Primary presenters of paper submissions will be notified by e-mail of the acceptance or rejection by May 1, 2016. Presenters will be required to complete a presenter information form and faculty disclosure form.

Meeting Registration Guidelines for Presenters

Poster presenters must register for the meeting and pay the applicable registration fee, as the 2016 Inaugural Global Brain Health and Performance Summit will not waive the registration fee. Presenters are also responsible for all personal expenses (e.g., travel, hotel). You are encouraged to register for the meeting and to reserve hotel accommodations as early as possible to ensure that space is available.

To register for the meeting, go online to www.etches.com/globalbrainhealthsummit2016.

POSTER GUIDELINES

Presenting Data and Materials

Presenters for poster presentations must present at the assigned time to present materials. Specific space will be assigned to hang and display your materials. Posters should be hung prior to the first break on Wednesday, May 11 and removed at the conclusion of sessions on Friday, May 13, 2016.

General Information

Your information should be self-explanatory so that you are free to supplement and discuss particular points raised by viewers. Again, handouts are strongly encouraged. You should bring enough handouts to insure availability to all attendees.

Policy on Commercial Support

Policy on Commercial Support: Presentations must avoid commercialism. Presentations that constitute promotion and advertising will not be accepted. If the cost of a presentation has been underwritten to any extent, a clear acknowledgement stating the support and identifying the source should be included in the abstract (e.g., "The support of [corporation or institution] for this project is gratefully acknowledged."). Statements made in presentations are the sole responsibility of the author or presenter. Statements should not be viewed as or considered representative of any formal stance or position taken on any subject, issue, or product by the Global Brain Health and Performance Summit Scientific Program or The Ohio State University.
