Anzac grants

COMMUNITY groups are encouraged to apply for funding to commemorate the Anzac centenary. The new Anzac Centenary Local Grants program will provide communities throughout the country with $100,000 in funding to honour the service and sacrifice of Australian servicemen and women in World War I. Projects could include public commemoration events, the creation or restoration of WWI memorials or school projects. Grant funding will be available between 2013-14. Details: anzaccentenary.gov.au

Property finalist

PROPERTY developer Cedar Woods' Ashcroft neighbourhood at Williams Landing is a finalist for best master planned community in the Property Council of Australia's annual Innovation and Excellence Awards. The award winner will be announced in May.

Listening in

WYNDHAM Council staff will be pounding the pavement to hear residents' top four priorities for the city over the next four years. The answers will guide the development of the Wyndham City Council Plan 2013-2017. The council will operate listening posts between March 15 and April 13 for residents and local businesses to councillors and council staff their priorities in person. Residents can leave their thoughts on the Wyndham City Living Facebook page and at wyndham.vic.gov.au from March 7 to April 13.

Casting couch

ACTORS have the chance to meet with a casting director on March 16. 2Divas' Maria Efthymiopolous will be visiting Screen Actors Studio in Werribee to meet students and experienced actors from the community at a casting session. Details: Studio director Robyn Duse, 8742 3626 or wyndham@admin.screenactors.com.au
