

Privacy Statement

25 May 2018

Your right to privacy and the security of the information or data that you share with us is the primary concern of Downtown Europe. This privacy policy explains how Downtown Europe uses any personal information we collect about you.

What information do we collect?

When you give your personal information to us, we will process and use that data in accordance with our responsibilities under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) – Regulation (EU) 2016/679) and other relevant legislation.

Information collected through the forms completed by you on our congresses website, will only be used for the purposes for which it has been sought, and to which you have consented by completing the information. It will not be used for any other purposes. Any personal data which we hold on you will upon request either be deleted or updated, any inaccurate or misleading information likewise corrected or deleted should you so request.

We do not share your information

Unless you unsubscribe, we will continue to email you with the latest information related to our congresses, education offerings, news and other information which we think you will find of interest. We will not share your personal information with any third parties.

Other Websites

If you follow a link from our site to another this Privacy Policy will no longer apply. We are not responsible for the personal information handling practices of any third-party sites.

Changes to Downtown Europe Privacy Policy

We may change this policy to meet regulatory requirements and ensure best practice. All changes to this policy will be published on this page.
