

ASTM INTERNATIONAL
Helping our world work better

3rd Annual 2022 Autonomy in Aviation Symposium

Tuesday, October 18, 2022
New Orleans, LA, USA

www.astm.org

- 8:30 a.m. Opening Remarks
Stephen Cook, AC377 Chair, Northrop Grumman
- 8:40 a.m. Welcoming Remarks
Congressman Rick Larsen,
Chairman, U.S. House Aviation Subcommittee
- 8:45 a.m. Keynote Speech
Garmin Autoland
Scott Haskins, Garmin
- 10:00 a.m. Break
- 10:15 a.m. Breakout Session
– Role of the Pilot in Command: Wes Ryan, NASA
– Standard Practice for Exercising a Contextual Framework for Increasingly Autonomous Aviation Systems: Chris Schulenberg, Reliable Robotics
- 10:45 a.m. Panel Session
Increased Autonomy Use Cases,
Moderator: Tom Gunnarson, Wisk Aero

12:00 p.m. Lunch (provided)

1:00 p.m. Panel Session
Community Engagement, Moderator:
Anna Dietrich, AMD Consulting

2:15 p.m. Breakout Session
– Role of the Pilot in Command: Wes Ryan, NASA
– Standard Practice for Exercising a Contextual Framework for Increasingly Autonomous Aviation Systems: Chris Schulenberg, Reliable Robotics

2:45 p.m. Break

3:00 p.m. Panel Session
Integrating into the Airspace: Are New Flight Rules Needed? Moderator: Andy Lacher, NASA

4:15 p.m. Fireside Chat
Colonel Nathan Diller, AFWERX and Stephen Cook, AC377 Chair; Northrop Grumman

4:55 p.m. Closing Remarks
Stephen Cook, AC377 Chair; Northrop Grumman

5:00 p.m. Adjourn/No-Host Networking Reception

Register now

