Nomination Instructions

Nominations may only be submitted by current Regular or Distinguished members of the Arizona Fire Chiefs Association.

Nominees for the Alan V. Brunacini Chief Fire Officer of the Year must be, or have been, a Chief Fire Officer in the State of Arizona for the past five (5) years. The contributions to the fire service, upon which the nomination is based, must have transpired over the past five (5) years. The nominee should clearly reflect the ideals and dedication to service embodied by Chief Brunacini. There will be a single award presented each year.

Nominees for the Chief Bob Weber Lifetime Achievement Award must be, or have been, a Chief Fire Officer in the State of Arizona for five (5) or more years. The contributions to the fire service, upon which the nomination is based, must clearly demonstrate service that has extended beyond the past five (5) years and had a significant impact outside the individuals own department. While the nominee must have served as a chief officer, the contributions to the fire service, upon which the nomination is based, need not be accomplished solely within that capacity and should reflect the nominees career long efforts to improve the fire service community as a whole. There may be multiple or no awards presented in a given year.

Individuals may be nominated based on their positive contributions to service, programs, and leadership of the state and local fire services. Please provide a detailed summary of the nominee's contributions to service, programs and leadership at the local, state and national levels.

The nomination should be based not only on the quantity of the individuals service but on the quality. You should clearly indicate the impact the nominee has had not only on their agency but on the fire service of the state and beyond and how the individual has contributed to the mission of the Arizona Fire Chiefs Association. The nomination should be as detailed as possible to assist the evaluation process.

Please ensure that all required areas in the nomination form are clearly and completely addressed.
