

Fallon Southwell - Lifetime Training

Further improving curriculum development, and teaching, learning and assessment of Apprenticeship programmes

This was produced as part of the Apprenticeship Staff Support Programme, which was commissioned and funded by The Education and Training Foundation.

Lifetime Training - Project focus...

Improve the quality of teaching, learning and assessment...

- Upskill all learner facing staff to gain nationally recognised qualification
- Engage with all learners including those in SMEs
- Produce a suite of resources that could be used again to train more staff

Lifetime Training - Our challenge and why..

The development of our people included generic teaching and learning qualifications...

- Teams followed a traditional programme of learning
- Delivered by an external provider
- Cost and time out of the business not sustainable
- Career plans and progression for teams inconsistent
- Programme not aligned to Lifetime Training and the needs of our customers - employers and Apprenticeship learners

Lifetime Training – What we do now...

Upskill of training teams to deliver quality teaching and learning in the most effective way for our business and customers...

- Train and develop our own people
- Blended programme development utilising the latest technologies and delivery methods
- Developing a programme specific to the roles within Lifetime Training that focuses on the needs of employers and Apprenticeship learners
- Continuous review the delivery of the project and make additional changes to the course and resources
