

Food Literacy & Healthy Lifestyles
October 14-16, 2019
UC ANR Building, Davis, CA

Monday, October 14

8:30 AM	Networking and Continental Breakfast
9:00	Welcome—Anna Martin, NFCS Advisor, San Joaquin County Introduce FLHL Co-Chairs and Planning Committee Review of Meeting Agenda
9:15	The State of YFC/NFCS—Katie Panarella, Director, Family and Consumer Sciences Program NFCS and its programs positively impacts Californians each and every day by contributing to health and well-being of individuals across the state. Let's explore how we will connect to new research and trends, engage our staff, and "do more with less" in a changing organization.
9:45	Getting to Know You—Lightning Rounds Facilitator: Katie Johnson, NFCS Advisor, Central Sierra MCP Briefly sharing backgrounds and research interests Questions: 1. What is your name, title, and work location/county? 2. What are your 2-3 main research and/or extension interests, and why did you choose those f
10:15	Break
10:30	Specialist Showcase Facilitator: Karina Diaz Rios, CE Specialist, Nutrition UC Merced Presenters: Lenna Ontai, Family & Early Childhood Specialist Laura Vollmer, Project Policy Analyst, Nutrition Policy Institute Pat Crawford, CE Specialist, Nutrition, UC Berkeley Sridharshi Hewawitharana, Data Analyst, Nutrition Policy Institute Susana Matias Medrano, CE Specialist, Nutrition, UC Berkeley Karina Diaz Rios, CE Specialist, Nutrition, UC Merced Marilyn Townsend, CE Nutrition Specialist, Emerita  - Presentations by CE Specialists and NPI Scientists on research interests and projects relevant to the field - Opportunity for learning, connectiong, and potential collaborations
11:55	Morning Wrap Up—Anna Martin, NFCS Advisor, San Joaquin County
12:00 PM	Awards &amp; Recognition—Katie Panarella, Mary Blackburn, Anna Martin
12:15	Lunch
1:00-5:00	Families with Young Children Workgroup Meeting ( Agenda )
5:30-7:30	Poster Session and Strolling Dinner

Tuesday, October 15

8:30 AM	Networking and Continental Breakfast
9:00	Overview Day's Agenda—Anna Martin, NFCS Advisor, San Joaquin County
9:05	Withering on the Vine Waiting for Government—Public Policy from the Ground Up Facilitator: Katie Johnson, NFCS Advisor, Central Sierra MCP Presenter: Keith Taylor, CE Specialist, Human & Community Development - Funding models for public health with a focus on non-government-funded development mod communities
10:30	Climate Change Work in Extension—Current Activities and Opportunities for New Coll Moderators: Marisa Neelon, NFCS Advisor, Contra Costa County and Meng Yu, YFC Advisor Panel Presenters: - Brian Oatman, Director, Risk & Safety Services, Specialty: Environmental Health & Safety, - Sarah-Mae Nelson, UC Climate Stewards Initiative Academic Coordinator. Specialty: Clima Communication, and Education - Wendi Gosliner, Project Scientist, Nutrition Policy Institute. Specialty: Food Policies and Pro Nutrition  Panel questions addressed during their mini presentations: - Please describe your professional or academic background and how climate change-related i work. - How does climate change fit into your day-to-day work within UC ANR? What are some spe - What's been the most significant learning experience for you since you started ding climate c and/or extension context? - From your perspective, what are some opportunities for research or extension program devel members of the FLHL program team collaborate with you?
12:00 PM	Lunch
1:00	Research to Policy—Nutrition Policy Institute Facilitator: Anna Martin, NFCS Advisor, San Joaquin County Presenter: Lorrene Ritchie, Director, Nutrition Policy Institute and CE Specialist - Approaches NPI has been applying in research to policy, what works best, what is challengin - Work of NPI as related to the work of NFCS/YFC Advisors and Specialists - Opportunities for collaboration on NPI's research projects now and/or in the future
2:15	Break
2:30	Strategic Communications Training Facilitator: Katie Panarella, Director, NFCS Program Presenters: Linda Forbes, Director Strategic Communications, UC ANR - Discussion of UC ANR's Strategic Communication Plan Pam Kan-Rice, Assistant Director Strategic Communications, UC ANR - Media Engagement Training
4:30	Wrap-Up—Anna Martin
6:00	Dinner Offsite—Bistro 33

Wednesday, October 16

8:30 AM	Networking and Continental Breakfast
9:00	Overview Day's Agenda—Anna Martin, NFCS Advisor, San Joaquin County
9:05	Project Board 101 for YFC/NFCS Advisors Facilitator: Katie Panarella, Director, NFCS Program Presenter: Kit Alviz, Program Planning and Evaluation Analyst, UC ANR <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Update on NFCS/YFC and Project Board data entry</li><li>- Draft a template for consistency in themes/program summary narratives</li><li>- Condition Change Indicators—what we are measuring, data base of research that supports our practices on tying themes to indicators/condition changes</li></ul>
11:30	Wrap-up/Feedback/Next Steps—Katie Johnson, NFCS Advisor, Central Sierra and Anna Martin, San Joaquin County
12:00 PM	Lunch
1:00-5:00	Consumer Climate Change Literacy Workgroup Meeting ( Agenda )