Results: Patient Age Band Distribution

PTIc (square root)* and p-values: Whole group and split into age brackets

Results: Number & Duration of CPP Insults

Conclusion:
- This pilot study has demonstrated CPP insults in childhood TBI have reduced over time.
- This suggests clinicians have improved in CPP insult prevention.
- Further investigations in a larger validation study is warranted.

References:

Acknowledgements:
KidsBrainIT is funded by ERA-NET NEURON, with MRC as its UK funding partner.