2:00pm - 4:00pm . . . COVID 19 Lessons Learned - Ready for November?

Public health officials say that COVID 19 may return in fall / winter months. How can we conduct the November General Election under COVID 19 constraints and risks?

5:00pm - 8:00pm. . . Happy Hour Scavenger Hunt!

Roam the extensive halls and rooms of McMenamins Elks Temple with your cocktail in hand, as you and your team search for clues and solve mysteries. A classic scavenger hunt with fabulous prizes. After this boozy teambuilder, dinner on your own at one of the Temple's four restaurant / bars. NOTE: The Temple is a short walk from The Murano, but we'll organize a transportation option to and from the venue.

8:00pm Dinner on Your Own

Wednesday, May 20

7:00am - 8:00am. . . Breakfast

8:00am - 8:15am . . . Tribal Land Acknowledgement and Blessing

The Puyallup Tribe of Indians welcome Auditors to their land and bless us with song.

8:15am - 12:00pm . . . What Does the Future Hold?

In this fast-paced 4-hour workshop, Auditors and state partners will forecast the 10-20 year future of elections, licensing, recording, and local government. In small groups, we'll scan for forces and trends and identify plausible scenarios. In a large group, we'll identify crossover issues and envision the future that we prefer. To close, we'll draft some milestones and strategies to help get us to our preferred future.

12:00pm - 1:00pm . . . Lunch Buffet w/ entertainment

1:00pm - 3:00pm . . . Change Management: The Evolving Relationship Between Auditors & OSOS

Facilitated discussion about the changing nature of state & local roles in this "Post VoteWA" era. Is OSOS our service vendor? Has top-down changed state policy making? How are we feeling about VoteWA in general?
