

Vogue Knitting Magazine Bringing a Woolly Wonderland to Times Square January 15-17 with Premier Event, Vogue
Knitting LIVE

A knitting symphony, extreme knitting, runway fashion, top education, unique art, shopping and more

New York, NY (January 16, 2015) — A premier affair of the yarn industry, Vogue Knitting Magazine's Vogue Knitting LIVE New York will bring unmatched education, fashion, shopping and events to yarn enthusiasts and those simply curious about anything fiber January 15-17 at the Marriot Marquis Hotel in Times Square (1535 Broadway).

Attendees will have the chance to learn from top talent of the knitting and crocheting worlds via hundreds of exciting classes and lectures and try their hand at hot trends like extreme knitting, the use of gigantic tools and fibers (bigger than a broomstick knitting needles and oversized yarn) to make large scale projects and installations. Audiences can also socialize and rub elbows with the “knitterati” at special events including a gala dinner with a knitting symphony, Scandinavian knitting sensations Arne & Carlos and an exclusive fashion show, and a cocktail party featuring a Knitting “Jeopardy” with trivia from the new book Knitting Ephemera where people can prove their knitting know-how and face off against the experts.

Other Event Highlights Include:

- Free learn-to-knit and learn-to-crochet lessons, panels and lectures all weekend
- Free demos from top designers and instructors including a Knitted Score from Dutch-born, Wales-based composer Jobina Tinnemans showing how to use knitting needles to create a beautiful soundscape and the ancient technique of Speedy Knitting from the World’s Fastest Knitter Hazel Tindall and June Hemmons
- Vogue Knitting magazine Sample Sale with originals from the magazine (proceeds go to charity)
- A Yarn Claw arcade-style game that will take people back to their childhood and give them the chance to win free yarn and needles (proceeds go to charity)
- Hundreds of classes, workshops, demos and lectures (everything from a beginner boot camp and dyeing yarn with fruits, vegetables, flowers and spices, to arm knitting, lace knitting, reading patterns, extreme knitting and more).
- A two-floor marketplace featuring thousands of products including interesting, hard-to-find fibers, accessories, patterns and more
- A distinctive art gallery featuring works from renowned artists from across the country including the Japanese art of Amigurumi, whimsical needle felted gnomes, notable crocheted street art , a six-foot-tall hand knit forest dragon, remarkable

oversized scale hand knit textiles and more

- Knit-couture fashion shows highlighting today's latest fashions and colors and a "Readers on the Runway" fashion show where Vogue Knitting readers will model fashions straight out of the magazine that they made with their own two hands
- A Yarn Tasting lounge where people can "try before they buy" and a Ball Winding Station to wind up new purchases
- A Good Measure Fitting Station for receiving personal measurements from experts, so projects will always fit perfectly

Tickets can be purchased online or at the door. Kids under 12 are free and students receive 50% off of their marketplace tickets and $15 off classes with proof of Student ID.
