

MARY M. GATES LEARNING CENTER

Looking to host a virtual meeting?

The MGLC is equipped with the following technology to enable the highest quality virtual, in-person, or hybrid meetings:

1. Webcasting for streaming video of presentations, meetings, and web/video conferences to the Internet for large or global audiences
 1. Broadcast to a video player link that can be shared with your attendees, or embedded on your website
 1. High Definition DSLR cameras (4K capable, 1080p webcast resolution). Cine Cameras (main) and DSLR (secondary/auxiliary)
 2. Upload bitrate max 10 mbps (high bandwidth video transmission)
 3. Content from PC sources can display to online audience with various view options:
 1. Full screen content
 2. Split screen camera and content
 3. Full screen camera
2. High-definition video conferencing to facilitate face-to-face communication with colleagues across the globe
 1. Professional level desktop-based videoconferencing experiences (able to utilize your existing tools such as Zoom, Teams, GoToMeeting)
 2. Traditional standards-based video teleconferencing (Cisco Telepresence, Polycom, etc.)
3. High-speed wired and wireless Internet access
 1. 500 mbps upload and download speeds, dedicated bandwidth for video calling and broadcasting.
4. Conference call capabilities
5. Flat screen monitors and high-definition projectors that allow presentations to be displayed and broadcast