

Workshop 3

Hepatitis C treatment in the prison setting

Friday Sept. 9th 8.30-10.

Venue: Stockholm

Andrew R. Lloyd^{1*}, Agnes Pernille Sauer², Jacob Soeholm³

¹ Kirby Institute and School of Medical Sciences, University of New South Wales, Sydney; and Justice Health, New South Wales, Australia.

² Department of Infectious diseases, Aarhus University Hospital, Denmark

³ Department of Infectious diseases, Odense University Hospital, Denmark

Workshop overview

1. Setting the scene: prisons, HCV, testing & treatment

Andrew Lloyd

2. Hep-Stiff: hepatitis screening in a Danish prison

Jacob Søholm

3. From the nurses' point of view

Pernille Sauer

4. Facilitated discussion

Discussion questions

1. Should prisoners with chronic hepatitis C be treated?
2. What are the organisational barriers to scale-up of treatment in the prisons?
3. What are the personal barriers to scale-up of treatment in the prisons?
4. What can be done to facilitate scale-up of treatment in the prisons?